Description

Magnificent two-door display cabinet, quality craftsmanship from the 1950s. Stamped on the back Domange Dijon. In solid oak comprising 3 doors at the bottom and 3 at the top, glazed with very clean original shelves. An original pull tab hidden under the very nice top. Lock and key work, very practical because it can be dismantled into two parts, therefore easy to transport. Quality furniture, therefore quite heavy, all pegged in the old style. Possibility on quote to patinate it in very trendy black. In good condition in its original condition, traces of use related to time, see photos. Comes from a country house in Haute Marne. Length at the longest 1m82. Height 2m23. Depth at the bottom 47cm. Depth at the top 34cm.
