Description

Splendid wall clock set in an elegant opening wooden case, with carved frame and golden tablet. The internal finishes of the clock are also in golden tablet and brass. The decorations, rich in garlands and intertwined plant motifs, add a touch of elegance. The watch has a chime that shows the hours, half hours and three quarters on a black background, and also has a working music box. Of fine workmanship, this 19th century Viennese clock is able to embellish any environment with class.
