Description

These works of cabinetmaking feature sinuous lines and richly detailed carvings typical of the period. The curved armrests, arched legs, and elaborate scrollwork and foliate motifs create a very elegant ensemble. The shaped seat and back, embellished with rocaille motifs in the center, offer unparalleled comfort. Made of carved walnut, these seats are an example of craftsmanship and rarely found in groups of 6. Good overall condition and integrity, upholstery in need of revision.Height at back 102cm approx.
