Description

Elegant small living room table also called Table Vide Poche. Work from the middle of the 19th century. Consisting of a bowl top with blackened wood threads on its contours (slight lacks see photo), and beveled edges. And a diamond-shaped empty pocket part with blackened edges. This small table is composed of two vertical uprights supporting its two shelves, uprights decorated with patterns evoking columns, adding a touch of architecture to the whole. Finally, it is decorated with small gilded brass casters to facilitate its movement. Small functional and aesthetic piece of furniture that will fit perfectly into a classic or contemporary interior. Beautiful patina and perfect stability. Beautiful discovery condition. Do not hesitate to contact me for more information and add us to
