A Large Empire Style Borne Clock, Early 19th Century

2 900 EUR

Signature : Pierre Victor Ledure, Claude Hémon

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 26,5cm

Height : 43cm

Depth : 16cm / 17cm

Description

The dial is signed Ledure Bronzier à Paris and Hémon Horloger.
Pierre Victor Ledure (1783-1840) is a bronzier and bronze merchant at 72 Passage Choiseul. Trained by Ravrio, he supplied to the Crown many bronzes for furniture. Claude Hémon (1770-xxx), clockmaker in Paris is registered as an independent clockmaker between 1812 and 1820.
Condition report: revised by our clockmaker, sold with a 2 year guarantee

Dealer

Igra Lignum

Art pieces of the 18th and 19th centuries (including Empire)

Mobile : +41 79 694 09 04 FR DE IT EN RU

Belfaux CH-1782