

Covered Cup In Japanese Porcelain Mounted In Silver - Eighteenth Century

1 300 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 15cm

Height : 11,5cm

Description

Covered cup and its saucer in Japanese porcelain. Saucer decorated with a molded and gadrooned silver cup holder with openwork pilasters forming a trembleuse.

The porcelain is decorated in the Imari palette with flowers in reserves in the shape of lambrequins in blue. The porcelain around 1700 and its silver setting partly from the 18th century.

Small accident under the edge of the lid.

Diam.: 15 cm - Height: 11.5 cm

Photos and additional information on request

<https://bils-ceramiques.com>

Dealer

Bils Ceramiques

Ceramic Specialist, Sales Purchase & Expertise

Mobile : 06.74.59.17.01

Lyon 69002