Description
-------------

Pair of elegant Louis XV style bedside tables made of walnut briar with walnut veneer. The bedside tables are equipped with two spacious and ergonomic drawers, ideal for storing all the necessary objects. The handles, in lost wax cast bronze with decorative vegetal motifs, give a touch of elegance and refinement to the piece of furniture. The upper surface in fine yellow Siena marble, veneered on stone, gives further value to the bedside tables. The marble has been carefully finished with wax, while the owl's beak edge adds a sophisticated detail. Made in Tuscany in the second half of the 18th century, they are in excellent condition. Finally, these bedside tables are a valuable piece of furniture to enrich and embellish any environment with a touch of class and refinement.
