Description

Characteristic and elegant hand-forged iron lantern holder. Its structure allows you to raise or lower the lantern as needed. The arm is rotatable, decorated with splendid vegetal racemes and supports the lantern, also decorated with vegetal details that add a touch of nature and beauty to the object. The four-legged base is decorated with phytomorphic motifs, which give further originality and style to this creation. This lantern holder was created as an atmospheric light for a coffee table or as a focal point in the corner of a loggia. This unique piece will add timeless elegance and a touch of history to the environment in which it will be placed. Handcrafted in Italy towards the end of the 19th century, it stands out for its fine workmanship and the aura of antiquity that surrounds it.
