Description

At the top of Rue Tholozé, you arrive at the entrance at the foot of the Moulin de la Galette. It is this high place of Parisian tourism that our artist chose to represent with this oil on cardboard in the 1930s - 1940s, as others among the most famous had done before him. A palette of muted colors in a variation of green, gray, red to evoke pre-war Paris. Signature at the bottom right "Paul Féron". It is nicely highlighted by an old Montparnasse frame with gray and gold patina wood steps. Dimensions: 46 cm x 33 cm (8 P format) 61 cm x 48 with its frame Very good condition.
