Description

Pair of 20th century silver-plated bronze sculptures representing two hippopotamus heads. Very interesting pair of sculptures that can be used as bookends or decorative pieces. Very beautiful definition of sculpture for these very dynamic works with a beautiful silver patina, very much in the spirit of Philippe Berry, a great animal sculptor of the 20th century. Note the presence of punches under the works that are difficult to read and identify. Possibility of sending to France and around the world by secure and insured package. Invoice and certificate provided.
