Description

Superb lithographed print, framed under glass, (period frame) representing an elegant woman, titled: Woman with orchid. This estampe exudes a lot of refinement and distinction. The cigarette gives the portrait a certain aristocratic superiority, supported by the delicate gesture of the other hand lifting a transparent veil. Signed lower left:

Français and won numerous medals, notably in 1900, for the Universal Exhibition, where he won the gold medal and was made a knight of the Legion of Honor. He is today especially appreciated for his symbolist compositions, mainly figures of women, evolving in a legendary, timeless and dreamlike universe. This "Woman with an Orchid" is one of the orders placed with him by Justin Bardou, the owner of the cigarette paper firm Job. Listed in Bénézit
