Description

French commode Louis Philippe late 19th. The wood is from the walnut tree. The walnut burl is flamed because it has many aesthetic designs. These designs have very contrasting complex patterns and intertwined veins on a naturally dark background of varying intensities. This chest of drawers is equipped with four drawers. The drawers are mounted in a dovetail ensuring perfect strength. The drawers can be opened daily and contain many objects sometimes heavy. They slide perfectly. The back of the dresser is made of solid wood panels so very resistant. The entrances are brass and have a heart shape. These entrances are posterior to the chest of drawers. The key opens all four drawers and is decorative. This dresser has a beautiful patina, aged by time. Its appearance is sweet and romantic. The chest of drawers is perfectly stable. It rests on low feet that respect the shape of the furniture in front and are called "patin" and two straight feet in back. The top of the dresser is a grey marble Saint Anne moulded on the sides and the front. The molding is worked and called «pair of buttocks». The corners are cut-off. The marble is richly veined and in perfect condition. All these veins make this piece of marble unique. The rendering is extraordinary by the finesse of the lines, geometric shapes, vibrant and natural color, different shades of white. The whole is a sumptuous picture. In the 19th century, all famous houses had a Louis Philippe dresser with simple and elegant lines. The reign of Louis-Philippe is the delight of the cabinetmakers. The latter enhance large smooth surfaces, work and select veneer to obtain the most beautiful patterns. The dresser has its place in every room of your home and will be the most beautiful effect. It will draw attention to the quality of the wood, the marble, the softness of its lines. It will bring warmth, relaxation and well-being to your home. Its creator invites us to understand, to establish an intimate and unique relationship. This piece of furniture passed down from generation to generation is enriched by its history by settling into your home. You will bring your piece of the story puzzle to your turn. You will highlight it by playing with its lines. You will have your favorite objects on its marble. It is a piece of furniture with character. The interior of the furniture has been cleaned so that the objects are stored in a very healthy and odourless environment.
