Description

HSP painting ex-voto fortune de mer signed William Henry JAMES and dated 1903 - RBM24HST001 Moving painting, commissioned by a sailor to the painter WH James in 1903, to illustrate and commemorate his fortune at sea and to display it in his port church. As an offering, for having remained alive after his fortune at sea ... The planking is broken, sea packets enter from the port side, the sailboat has its foremast broken, we see the sailor holding the helm at the back. Painting showing some dirt, which deserves a good cleaning, but could be displayed like this. No frame, painting on a healthy and undistorted wooden panel, probably an old advertisement, the lettering of which can be seen on the back ... Painting with cracks, see photos Dimensions 35 x 25 cm approximately Fast and well-protected
