Description

Beautiful plate in fine Sarreguemines earthenware called "Mouchoir" created after the drawings of Richard Froment (1845-1921) who was a ceramic painter and creator of decorations for tableware and wall panels in Creil Montereau and Sarreguemines. This plate is part of the series of small trades: the grinder. Stamp of the factory under the piece dating between 1875 and 1900. The number 1933 corresponds to the number of the shape of the piece because there is a directory of shaped pieces from Sarreguemines and Digoin. The number 225 corresponds to the type of paste used. This amusing plate with its text is in perfect condition.
