

Fish Shovel, Silver France Circa 1890, Odiot Orfevre

410 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 29,5 cm

Description

Fish shovel with a concave oval spatula, decorated with an openwork decoration made using the openwork cutting technique. The handle is decorated with fillet moldings embellished with loops, decorated with the alliance coat of arms under a marquis' crown, framed by two heraldic lions. Made in France in the last quarter of the 19th century. 950/1000 silver, Minerva hallmark. Master Goldsmith's hallmark: Jean Baptiste Gustave Odiot, Paris, 72 rue Basse-du-Rempart / 1865 - 1894 / Dimensions: Length: 29.5 cm Width: 6.8 cm Weight: 143 g In perfect condition, without deformation, shocks or scratches.

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600