Description

Lombard school, mid 18th century

Couple of angels

Gilded and painted wood, cm alt 112 x 92

Base: 28 x 30 x 29 cm

The pair of angels made of painted and gilded wood is an example of 18th century Lombard manufacture. The two figures are presented kneeling on a high base carved meticulously and gilded. The two angels are similar in appearance, but have some variations, for example in clothing: both are wrapped in a golden robe that falls in swollen drapes, but one the drape covers a shoulder and the entire torso, While in the other it
