Description

Pair of two-light wall sconces in opalescent glass and gilded bronze. Bundle structure of lake reeds with floral corolla hosting one of the two lights. Main decorative element consisting of a stylized fish in opalescent glass, characterized by a sinuous movement and with the tail pointing upwards, the latter resting on a leafy base and placed in a projecting position. The ornamental display is completed by rivulets of water in opalescent glass placed under the animal. The glass parts have small chips and slight defects.
