Description

Beautiful trumeau made entirely of solid walnut with walnut veneer. The base is characterized by four elegant curved legs that end with goat-shaped feet. The top of the trumeau can be opened and inside it hides a cabinet divided into small drawers with a lock hidden under the list. The upper part has two doors with original mercury mirrors framed in gilded wood. Finally, the hat is decorated in a moving, tripartite and proportionate way. This trumeau with an elegant and light design is in perfect condition and was made by a Venetian manufacturer in the mid-18th century. The sophisticated design, characterized by clean lines, high quality materials and refined details, is able to add elegance and refinement to the environment.
