Description

Original oil on canvas mounted 80 cm x 40 cm, signed lower right Albert Genta, dating from the 60s, and representing a naked woman from behind, languid on a couch. Superb painting with a delicate and sensual touch in good condition. Sold with an invoice-certificate. Albert GENTA (1901-1989) was the Parisian painter of the female nude par excellence, in his own works but also in illustration and the press. He is also known for his booklets "drawing taught" by example which were sold in newsstands in the 60s.
