Description

Today we are presenting for sale this spectacular four-door sideboard in fruitwood in the transitional style, Louis XV, Louis XVI, but from the period we will say without taking any risks from the first quarter of the 19th century between 1810/1820. Doors with large moldings and drawers carved in the Greek style. The fruitwoods are cherry and pear for the most marked parts. This piece of furniture comes from a castle in the Forez plain (42), in very good condition, it has had some light restorations in the past. (E24)
