Description

This watercolor represents the castle of Etreham, belonging to Mr. V. Saulnier. For the initials we think of AF. There is no doubt it is from the middle of the 19th century: 1874. This is a work made by a painter, executed with great finesse. For the condition, unfortunately note some traces of pitting. This watercolor has remained fresh in color. Some yellow traces, wear, pitting.. It has its old pass but a little pitted too. It has remained all the same appreciable, framed it could have a lot of allure.
