

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Gouache Of A Shipwreck In A Storm With Gothic Ruins. Early 19th Century

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gouache

Width : 57cm

Height : 46cm

Description

Gouache of a Shipwreck in a Storm with Gothic Ruins, Early 19th Century

Technique: Gouache on canvas

Period: Early 19th century

Description: This romantic painting depicts a dramatic scene where the stormy sea engulfs large ships, while small human figures on the shore desperately struggle to survive. Nature reigns supreme as vegetation starts to envelop the Gothic ruins on the promontory, symbolizing the triumph of nature over human constructions. The tiny figures, dwarfed by the vast landscape, emphasize the contrast between human fragility and the unstoppable power of the elements. The stormy sky is illuminated by a dusky pink light, heightening the unsettling atmosphere of the scene. This dramatic lighting enhances the

Dealer

Antichità di Alina

Peintures anciennes - Art nouveau - Art déco, micromosaïques, porcelaine

Mobile : +39 3383199131

Via Maggio 63 / rosso

Firenze 50100

contrast between the violence of the storm and the delicate hues.

Frame: Modern frame with green velvet passe-partout, enhancing the chromatic contrasts of the painting.

Dimensions with frame: L 57 cm x H 46 cm

Dimensions without frame: L 43 cm x H 32 cm

Condition: Excellent. The patina of time enriches the atmosphere without compromising the readability of the artwork. Technique: Gouache on paper