Description

A gilded bronze firewall...

The gilding has suffered...

It can always be improved by a professional or with elbow grease...!

I cleaned it as simply as possible...!

And a beveled mirror...

And enamel fixed under glass...

A decorative handle on top...

In several elements screwed between...

It is a sign of quality...

From the Art Nouveau period, that is to say the very end of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th...

Note that objects from this period are a little rarer because there is little production due to the small size of these years...!

FRENCH origin...
