Description

This sumptuous triptych, composed of a clock and two candlesticks, is an extraordinary expression of elegance. Made of white statuary Carrara marble with fine gilded bronze finishes, the clock, with weekly winding and hour and half-hour chime, features an opening disc on the back. The suspension is made of steel sheet. The candlesticks, double-armed and adorned with refined phytomorphic decorations, contribute to the visual harmony of the triptych. Preserved in excellent condition, both for the marble and the gilding of the bronzes, these pieces reveal the craftsmanship of an Italian manufacture from the mid-19th century. An authentic testimony of style and refinement.

Measurements: clock H x W x D 42 x 24 x 12cm;
