

Antefix Of A Hairy And Bearded Man, ;... Baptized The Rabbi...

265 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Terracotta

Width : 14

Height : 21

Depth : 3

Description

This antefix of deep green-grey patinated terracotta offers us a hairy and bearded man's face worthy of being included in the Louvre in the Etruscan and Greco-Roman facsimile collections. An antefix was a finishing architectural element, the plaque filled the holes between the tiles for example. The well-finished, hollowed-out features of this elderly man make us think of a philosopher, an influential scholar, a rabbi, or even a wise hermit...

Dealer

Complément d'objets

sciences, ethnical, naturalia, artificialia, didactical items, curiosities

Tel :

Mobile : 00 32 477 450 595

Wemmel 1780