Pair Of 18th Century Solid Silver Candelabra By Balzac Edmé Pierre Paris Circa 1740/50

28 000 EUR

Signature : EDMÉ PIERRE BALZAC

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Width : 33,2 centimètres entre chaque bras

Diameter : 15,6 centimètres pour la base

Height : 42,8 centimètres

Description

A pair of solid silver candelabras...Could be just a torch...Even the bobeches unscrew...Checked for the lower part with 18th century hallmarks...Around 1740/50...At the tax collectors...From the goldsmith EDMÉ PIERRE BALZAC - PARIS...Received master in 1739...One of the greats of the 18th century...!The upper part checked with the 1st title minerva...The titration for the whole is 950/1000...The upper part was added around 1900 by a very good Parisian goldsmith...!Or when they were shown as lamps the guarantee was necessary...!Quite rare objects...!All imperfections are rectified...!I could not put all the photos so if necessary no worries...Weight... 4 kilos 229 gr

Dealer

Signature Antiquité

Collectibles and charm items

Mobile : 0685024976

67 Rue Nationale

Lectoure 32700