Description

Jacques BRISSAUD 1880-1960

Is a French painter, sculptor and engraver.
He began his studies at the Beaux-Arts in Paris. Painter of genre scenes, landscapes, he exhibited from 1906 in the Parisian Salons. (des Indépendants, des Tuileries and nationales des beaux-arts)

If he specialized in hunting and bullfighting scenes, we also find landscape paintings. Here, the painter offers a magnificent view of the banks of the Seine and the Louvre. A painting, bright, cheerful and full of life.
