Description

Beautiful tray inlaid with fine stones and mother-of-pearl in white marble from the Indian know-how of the early 20th century, rectangular and with floral friezes with in its center a square placed diagonally richly decorated with semi-precious stones: malachite, carnelian, lapis lazuli, jade &c ... A beautiful tray for a centerpiece or a coffee table. This beautiful piece, formerly restored at an angle, does not lose its magic: the details and the ornamentation, the finesse of the flowers and foliage, the framing frieze, all give this piece preciousness and elegance and is perfectly suited for a Neo-classical decoration of good quality, quite in the spirit of our style of the early 19th century, Charles X. A beautiful decorative element that can even be fixed to the wall like a painting. The
