Description

Very beautiful table set in damask linen, embroidered with the initials JC. This service dates from the end of the 19th century or the very beginning of the 20th century. It is of good quality and consists of a large tablecloth with its twelve napkins. Faux plain decoration with marked damask, large frieze on the borders, beautiful density of material, flexibility and fluidity give this old table service all the qualities required to last a long time. White linen, washed and ironed.Condition : Note a small repair located on a napkin (see photo), as well as very very light storage glimmers, barely noticeable and practically disappeared when washed (therefore not persistent).?
