Description

This elegant pair of bronze fawns is a replica of the original sculptures discovered in 1756 at the Villa dei Papiri, an aristocratic residence in ancient Herculaneum. Lightness of form and fine detail are the distinguishing features of these twin sculptures. Originally part of a larger statuary complex, these graceful creatures are captured in motion with remarkable realism. Their heads are held high, with one fawn's snout pointing to the left and the other to the right. Key Features: Material: Bronze Origin: Villa dei Papiri, Herculaneum (replicas) Period: Inspired by ancient Roman sculptures Condition: Excellent Dimensions: 55 x 44 x 14 cm (each) These beautifully crafted bronze fawns are perfect for collectors of classical art, bringing a touch of ancient history and elegance to any space.
