Description

Famous sofa "Dark Lady Bocca", designer Studio 65 for Gufram From 2008, numbered 75/500 - with certificate of authenticity Expanded polyurethane, black elastic fabric - with silver piercing In perfect condition - Dimensions L: 212cm x D: 80cm x H: 85cm Purchase invoice dated 01/08/2019 EUR 10,900 incl. tax The Bocca sofa, in the shape of a giant mouth, is an icon of the 70s. Originally created in 1936 by Salvador Dali in homage to the mouth of actress Mae West, it was redesigned in 1971 by Studio 65 in the image of Marilyn Monroe's lips. Now published by Gufram, this sofa is made of polyurethane foam with a black elastic fabric covering washable at 40 °. Bocca, a comfortable sofa or armchair and modern sculpture all at once, is now present in several museum collections.
