Lovely pair of double silver salt cellars resting on a base with contours, moldings and four feet. The central socket with projections and compartments ends with a ring with scrolls. The hexagonal glasses with sides are in clear crystal cut with a double thread wheel. Minerva hallmark 1st title on each salt cellar in the middle of the base under the central socket. Hallmark of the Master - Parisian goldsmith François-Alphonse Debain below (active from 1847 to 1864). He settled at 140 rue du Temple and inscribed his hallmark "a nacelle and two little men" on January 15, 1847 and renewed it on July 19, 1851. The hallmark was crossed out on May 27, 1864. A lovely model, a very beautiful association of silver with cut crystal glassware that will contribute to making your table unique, refined, and beautiful!
