Description

Abraham Lincoln, born in 1809 and assassinated in 1865, was the sixteenth American president and abolished slavery.

He is represented here in bust, in a pensive attitude, his eyes slightly lowered.

The base is also in bronze, one of the corners is slightly deformed (see photos). This is the only mark of time on this beautiful object: the patina is impeccable, the object has not received any shock.

Its total height is 15 cm.
