Description

Small turquoise blue opaline bottle and its ball stopper. A crown of roses, anemones and forget-me-nots painted in gold and dark blue adorns the perimeter of the belly. This floral motif is framed by gold stripes and, in the lower part, a frieze of stylized leaves and small star motifs. Gold threads highlight the body and neck of this bottle while its stopper is topped with a rosette and petals. Extremely fine, this decoration was executed by the workshop of Jean-Baptiste Desvignes. Slight wear to the gold.
