Present in the 1933 catalogue, this collection followed by BACCARAT until the end of the 20th century is particularly sought after in its roemer shape for the purity of its lines and the beauty of its colours, both frank and subtle. A complete set in almost new condition is becoming rare and difficult to find. The only double-cut crystal Rhine wine glasses still present in the house's catalogue today are the Harcourt model glasses, priced at EUR650 each.
