Description

The city of Ghom is located about a hundred kilometers from Tehran.

A weaving center, the city has no tradition of its own and borrows its designs from neighboring provinces, in particular Senneh, Kashan and Isfahan.

Ghom carpets are not lacking in originality and combine themes from various traditions.

The most commonly used design is the classic garden, some carpets have paintings of animals and birds, hunting scenes.

Most carpets have an ivory background. This carpet also has a captivating border decorated with flowers and animals.
