Description

This classic still life captures the essence of a rustic kitchen from the early 20th century, with an authentic arrangement of utensils and containers made of terracotta, metal and glass. Each object - from the golden kettle to the glass jar for preserves - evokes the daily life of a bygone era, when every detail counted for the preparation of meals. The warm colors and careful composition bring a friendly and nostalgic atmosphere. This work by the artist ALBERT BRUMENT, signed and finely crafted, is a tribute to the culinary heritage and artisanal objects of yesteryear.
