Description

Wrought iron gate, made during the first quarter of the 20th century, in perfect condition, scalloped sheet metal decorated with embossed and riveted florets at a height of 170 cm. Its bars, twisted one in two on two registers, and all twisted crossing the upper rail, are forged with flames at their summits. This rail is decorated with commas, inverted "head to tail", stapled like the play of volutes which animates its central frieze. Its height in the center is 288 cm for 272 cm per side. The height at the axis of the upper hinges is 227 cm. The section of its uprights is 27 mm². You can visit our site:
