Description

Oil on canvas depicting a "Lady of Quality and her Dog", Louis XV period, 18th century, circa 1750. The painting we are presenting is part of the great tradition of portrait painting that was very fashionable in the 17th and 18th centuries and very popular with the aristocracy and the upper middle class of finance of the Ancien Régime. A great freshness emerges from our painting both for its colors and the psychology of the character. Original frame and canvas. In very good condition (small reinforcements on the back of the canvas). Dimensions: h.82 cm x l.65 cm.
