Description

Chest of drawers, curved on all sides, with two drawers without a crosspiece in floral marquetry. The top is in marble and this piece of furniture bears a double stamp "Perreau". We find a trace of this cabinetmaker reported by Christopher Payne in his book "The quintessence of furniture in the 19th century" (page 485). An exceptional ornamentation of gilded bronzes magnifies this chest of drawers, we will note the inverted pull handles. A copy of a Carlin chest of drawers bearing this stamp is in the chateau d'Eu. This piece of furniture has been completely restored by our workshop. DIMENSIONS: 1.30m x 0.61m and 0.87m high. Delivery on estimate.
