890 EUR

Signature : Inconnu

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 39 et 39,5cm

Description

Pair of biscuit porcelain busts mounted on blackened wooden bases representing the Austrian composer Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-1809) and the German composer Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750).

Height 39 and 39.5cm.

Beautiful carving and chiseling work, lots of details.

I would lean towards a German porcelain production but I can't find a mark.

Probably dating from the period 1880-1920. The porcelain is just a little dirty, we sell them in their own juice, come from a regional estate.
