Description

Lamp in colored glass paste from the 1925-1930s in the art deco style. Very interesting lamp in worked glass paste and gilded bronze for the base, remarkable for its quality of execution of the work of the glass in thickness, testimony to great mastery. Manufacture to be identified for this lamp, very rare on the market. Note the double lighting allowing to highlight the nuances of the work of the glass thicknesses. Original lampshade in good condition which can be replaced by another more contemporary one. Height of the foot alone 32 cm.
