

Japanese Polychrome Porcelain Empty Pocket Dish

315 EUR

Signature : Seiji Kaisha

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 18

Width : 12

Height : 3

Description

Japan, Meiji period, Q4 19th century, Japanese polychrome Arita porcelain empty-pocket dish in the shape of a maple leaf, decorated with peonies and floral garlands. The plate dates from the 1880s and bears the underglaze mark of the Seiji Kaisha company active between 1879 and 1905.
weight: 358 g

Dealer

ZonienArtGallery

Chinese ceramics, Qing & early Republic periods

Mobile : 0032484970008

Groenendaalsesteenweg 29a

Hoeilaart 1560