

Covered Pot (kamcheng) In Polychrome Porcelain, Republic Period

385 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Width : 19

Height : 19

Description

China, 1920-1930, Porcelain and enamel covered jar in the Famille Rose style. Hand-painted with polychrome decoration. depicting scenes of young women in a garden on the container and lid as well as calligraphic inscriptions and poems on the glaze. Four "dog ear" handles on the sides and a Fô dog as a handle on the lid. An unidentifiable red signature on the underside. Apart from minor chips on the lid and slight signs of wear, the jar is in very good condition. weight: 1450 g

Dealer

ZonienArtGallery

Chinese ceramics, Qing & early Republic periods

Mobile : 0032484970008

Groenendaalsesteenweg 29a

Hoeilaart 1560