Description

Early 19th century Neoclassical carved and gilded wall brackets realized with a white ivory color majolica demi vase of the Italian manufacture Giustiniani from Naples. This unique and elegant pair of Italian artworks can be used as wall lights too, see listed pictures with a demilune LAMPSHADE, USED FOR DISPLAY ONLY, not included in price. If requested, we could customize an offer.

The ancient Italian maiolica is finally framed by an hand-carved and gold leaf gilded wooden demi-lune shaped structure ornated with a beading profile and ending in the lower part with a scrolling carving. The top has no gilding finish, but a Siena yellow painting.

This pair of antique carved and gilded wood and majolica shelves, handcrafted in the early 19th
