17th Battalion National Guard Officer Shako Plaque

300 EUR

Period : 19th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Brass
Width : 10 cm
Height : 10 cm

Description

Shako plaque of an officer of the 17th Battalion of the National Guard. Model 1852 Presidency of Louis Napoleon Plate stamped in mercury-gilded brass representing an uncrowned eagle. It holds in its talons the spindle of Jupiter with in the center a bomb cut out of the number 17 and in the background an oak and laurel branch. Dimensions: 10 x 10 cm France Presidency of Louis Napoleon Good condition, signs of use

Dealer

GALERIE OCARINA
Art précolombien, Archéologie, Arts premiers
Mobile : 0630229738

15 grand rue
Issigeac 24560