Description

This blown glass vase is a remarkable example of the expertise of the Val Saint Lambert manufacture, a renowned Belgian crystal maker. Designed by artists Louis LELOUP and Samuel HERMANe, the vase is distinguished by its organic shapes and natural palette. The colors blend harmoniously, evoking abstract landscapes or nature-inspired patterns. The polished finish of the neck contrasts with the rougher, more tactile texture of the body, creating a visual and tactile balance. An elegant and timeless piece, perfect for vintage design lovers and glass art collectors. Years: Circa 1970 Height: 23.5 cm Diameter: 63 cm Material: Blown glass Signatures: Initials engraved under the base (Val Saint Lambert LL / SH)
