Description

The stunning drapery of this elegant lady's clothing is what first draws our attention to this piece, with its flowing movement and magnificent golden and brilliant blue tones. The sitter seems dismissive of the artist and viewer, yet still encourages us to focus on her captivating appearance. A truly outstanding portrait.

Born in Madrid in 1900, Gumersindo Sainz de Morales was an exceptional Spanish painter who spent much of his life living and working in Barcelona. Known for his magnificent oil paintings showing figures and scenes of daily life in his native Spain, the artist documented these moments with an undeniable magic and flair for capturing emotion. Work by this artist has enjoyed international success at auctions such as
