Description

Old bronze image of the historical Buddha, Burma (Myanmar), Mandalay period, around 1880. Shakyamuni's gaze is realistic, the eyes are made with cowries (black-spotted shells), which accentuate the expression of his benevolent and meditative gaze. On the headband that underlines his ushnisha still partially gilded, vestiges of glass beads. Beautiful medal patina with shades of verdigris. This exclusive and authentic piece comes from the estate of the merchant and collector Claude de Marteau. It is sold with a certificate of provenance.
