Description

Ivory Coast, Yaouré people, circa 1950, superb dance mask in hardwood with a dark brown patina from the company "Dyé" symbolizing the "Yu" or spiritual power. It represents a human face with a collar surmounted by two totemic birds. The carving work is remarkable. The facial features are finely drawn and it gives off a deep feeling of interiority. Height 37.5 cm (53 cm with the base). The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to all. Good condition except for slight normal wear and tear without incidence. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. Shipping is carried out with insurance included.
